For High School and Middle School Baseball Players/Families

January 4, 2018 @ 7:30pm

WHERE: U of North Florida
Adam W. Herbert University Center, RM #1003
12000 Alumni Dr., Jacksonville FL 32224

Presented By DIAMOND COLLEGE ADVISORY TEAM - www.diamondcollegeadvisory.com

Please join us for this FREE highly informative presentation on the college recruiting, and admissions process to be led by the Diamond College Advisory Team (DCAT), the nationally recognized advisory service for high achieving student-athletes who are both capable of, and serious about, playing baseball in college.

By attending this seminar, student-athletes and parents will have the opportunity to:

- Close the information gap that exists with respect to the college recruiting & admission processes
- Obtain information specifically geared toward helping the motivated student-athlete be proactive in the college admissions process and in their training

Topics for discussion may include:

- Demystifying the recruiting process and “college coach speak.”
- Productive interactions with college coaches and admissions officers
- Recruiting Process “timing” & the 3 phases of the process: Preparation, Exposure, Detective
- How to market yourself the “right” way to college coaches
- Predatory businesses that infiltrate the market-what to believe and what not to
- How to maximize the effectiveness of showcases, camps and tournaments
- Scholarships, financial aid, roster limitations and National Letters of Intent
- There is more to college baseball than just the elite Division I programs
- Recruiting process pitfalls to avoid
- General information regarding the DCAT program that is designed to aid student-athletes and their families in navigating the entire recruiting & admissions process

The presentation will feature a highly interactive Q & A period designed to respond to your questions concerning the college recruiting, admissions, search and selection processes.

If you plan to attend, please RSVP to Justin Cronk at jcronk@diamondcollegeadvisory.com ASAP as space is limited. Please also note the number of persons attending. Parents, players and coaches are welcome. If you have any further questions, please call Justin Cronk at 864-213-5931.
